

The Discipleship & Ministries Cluster of the Methodist Church's Connexional Team works to equip the Methodist Church's ministries so that they, in turn, can equip the discipleship of the people of God.

The Ministries, Learning & Development Officer and the Programme Support Officer are key roles within the Discipleship & Ministries Cluster.

Ministries, Learning & Development Officer

£39,888 including Inner London Allowance

For presbyters and deacons of the Methodist Church, the usual terms and conditions will apply.

You will develop and support the Methodist Church's capacity to think prayerfully, creatively and strategically about its ordained, accredited, commissioned and informal lay ministries, and will enhance the Church's programmes for nourishing, equipping and resourcing those who undertake those ministries. You will also contribute to the Methodist Church's circuit development activities, especially Regrouping for Mission.

You will have a degree or a post graduate qualification which includes a research element and experience of the ordained or authorised ministries of the Church. You will be an effective communicator of complex ideas, and passionate about the full range of the Church's ministries.

Programme Support Officer

Fixed-term contract to August 2011

£33,043 including Inner London Allowance

You will support the development and implementation of programmes which relate to the ministries of presbyters, deacons, local preachers, worship leaders and others exercising leadership in circuits, local churches and fresh expressions of church.

You will have experience either of supporting programme delivery or of supporting the administrative work of the Church. You will also have experience of undertaking consultation exercises and the ability to synthesise large quantities of information into concise reports.

Closing date: Monday 26 July 2010

Interview date: Wednesday 11 August 2010
