

The Methodist Church

Thinking of taking a year out? Or know a young person who is?

Youth President 1st September 2011 - 31st August 2012

The Youth President's primary purpose is to enable, encourage and enthuse young people both inside and outside of the Methodist Church.

We are looking for someone who can influence the future direction of the Church, who understands what it's like to be a young person in the UK in the 21st century, and who has a vision and drive. The post will be based at home with frequent travel to London and across the Connexion.

Candidates must be aged between 18 and 23 years of age at the start of their contract.

If you would like to discuss this vacancy further please contact Jude Levermore on 020 7467 5134.

This is a paid position, currently £7,944.50 per annum. Travel expenses will be covered.

Closing date for applications: 30th July 2010 at 12 noon.

Interviews to be held: 24th August 2010

Final candidates will be elected by young people at the Methodist Youth Assembly which will be held 19- 21 November 2010 in Liddington.

The Methodist Church is an Equal Opportunities Employer. All are welcome.
