

The Methodist Church

Do you have a passion for music in Methodism?

Could you support the Methodist Church in being at the cutting edge of musical worship in the 21st century?

Volunteer Chair of the Music in Worship Rolling-Resource Group (position available to July 2011)

The Methodist Church seeks to recruit a volunteer Chairperson for its Music in Worship Rolling-Resource Group, from April 2010 to July 2011. The group will develop and deliver an innovative, web-based rolling-resource of hymns, music and songs to be launched in 2011, in conjunction with the Methodist Church's new authorised hymn collection.

The Music in Worship Rolling-Resource Group will meet approximately 6 times a year and members will liaise via email between meetings.

The post holder will require a strong knowledge and expertise in hymns and worship music, a proven track record of using music resources creatively in worship, and an in-depth experience of Methodist Church life. They will also require knowledge of marketing, budget management and web development.

This is a volunteer position, for which expenses will be paid.

If you are interested in serving the Methodist Church in this way, please send a CV and covering letter detailing relevant qualities and experience and how you would carry out the duties to: recruitment@methodistchurch.org.uk

Closing date: 5th March 2010 by 12 noon

Interviews will take place on: 19th March 2010
